THE FRIAR'S FRAGMENT

It is hard to believe but Fall is upon us. The coolness of the nights reveals that truth to us. Hopefully, this season of the year will remind us to worship if we are able in this pandemic. We are continually to worship with social distancing, mask, and other restraints that may be necessary. I hope to see you soon. We will continue our study of "The Signs of Jesus in the Gospel of John" for four more weeks on Wednesday at 10:00 am. Come, if you can.

Continue to pray for the Pastor Search Team. They are continuing to work at their assignment to find a new pastor. You are in my prayers and I solicit yours as well.

Blessings,
Bill Tuck
Interim Pastor

Thank You Note:

Mount Hermon Church Family,

Thank you all for the calls, cards, and prayers during our recent health struggles. Leo and I appreciate it so very much. We really miss being at church and being with our church family.
