Molly Spraker is the Big Event coordinator for Longwood University. This year's service project to the Farmville community on March 26 is seeking to send hundreds of students to almost 100 job sites. Monetary donations are helpful and will all go to purchase tools and supplies.

The students would also benefit from the donation of your used yard tools or hand tools, such as rakes, shovels, hammers, hand saws, clippers, and wheelbarrows. Supplies needed are: paper towels, Windex, work gloves, trash bags, paint trays, paint rollers, and brushes.

For more info on Longwood's Big Event visit www.longwoodbigevent.org (note website under construction), or email longwoodbigevent@gmail.com, or call 434-395-2111

Quotes for Today

God gave you a gift of 86,400 seconds today.

Have you used one to say "thank you?" - William Arthur Ward

I would like to run away from it all but a strange man on the cross won't let me. - Sam Shoemaker

From the Pastor

As 2010 Winds Down

Well, we don't like to miss a Sunday morning worship time, but it happens, as it did Dec 26. Seems as if the past year brought more snow and cold than the previous past several winters combined. We missed 3 Sundays in 2010. – I hope you stayed safe and warm during the latest storm.

May 2011 find God bringing you big blessings and significant growth in your spiritual life. Be an intentional, purposeful seeker this year. That doesn't mean you and I can set an agenda and expect God to follow it. It don't work that way. -- We ask; God answers. God leads; we follow. It's no more complicated than that, but it's ever-so difficult to do, isn't it?

Thanks for your many Christmas greetings and for the love we have shared together in 2010.

Happy New Year!

Lee
