Quotes for Today

You can learn many things from children. How much patience you have, for instance. - Franklin P. Jones

Assumptions are the termites of relationships. - Henry Winkler

Challenges are gifts that force us to search for a new center of gravity. Don't fight them. Just find a different way to stand.

From the Pastor

Little Things Are Big!

Want more out of life? Pay attention to the little things. Why? Because Jesus noticed that “Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.” (Luke 16:10)

His observation has huge implications. If God sees you can't (or won't) be faithful with small concerns, how is He going to trust you with big ones? He can't... He won't. The more significant blessings and responsibilities of life won't come your way because you short-circuited them by mishandling the little stuff.

You can relate to how God feels about this. A sixteen year old can't keep her room clean, always loses stuff, and never gets her homework done. And you want to hand her the keys to a 3000 lb. automobile because why? A coworker often sends out professional correspondence with typo's and errors. Shall we entrust him to pay company bills?

Jesus says to pay attention to everything God wants you to do... even the little things. God is surely paying attention, and when He sees how careful you are with the small stuff, He will be delighted to bring you more and greater blessings.

In His love,

Lee
