Quotes for Today

Love at first sight is easy to understand; it's when two people have been looking at each other for a lifetime that it becomes a miracle!

- Sam Levenson

It is often supposed that when people stop believing in God, they believe in nothing. Alas, it is worse than that. When they stop believing in God, they believe in anything.

- G. K. Chesterton

A person cannot directly choose his circumstances, but he can choose his thoughts, and so indirectly, yet surely, shape his circumstances.

- As A Man Thinketh

From the Pastor

Angry?

According to legend, some young boys were visiting the studio of the famous Leonardo da Vinci. While the master artist labored quietly and sensitively over an important portrait, one of lads knocked over a stack of canvases. Da Vinci flew into a rage, threw his brush, and shouted harsh words at the hapless boy, who ran crying from the studio. The artist returned to his work, trying to paint the face of Jesus... but he couldn't do it. Somehow, anger and the face of Jesus just didn't go together at all.

Wouldn't it be helpful to our relationships if we spent more time looking at the face of Jesus? Then when we became ticked, angered, perturbed, mad at, or "put out" with a family member or friend, the face of Jesus would move us to let go of our anger, forgive, put it behind us, drop it, move on...

If you are "out of sorts" with someone today, remember, life is too short to wallow in the ugly stuff. If you ask Jesus what to do about your anger, you already know what He will say. Do you have the will to do it?

In His love,

Lee
