Quotes for Today

Intelligence is quickness in seeing things as they are.
-- George Santayana

The best time to plant a tree was twenty years ago.
The second best time is now. – Old Chinese proverb

What Do Ya Know?

Do you ever watch Jeopardy on TV? Are you any good at it? I would not be surprised if you replied, “Sometimes!” When I am in the room while Jeopardy is on, I find myself calling out answers (or guesses). Like you, I’m a whiz-kid in some categories and a moron in others. But it should not be surprising to find your areas of brilliance don’t match mine, and my dummy categories aren’t the same as yours. People know different stuff. And that’s OK.

What do you know? Can you share it (with humility) as a way of helping or uplifting a friend or coworker? – What do you not know? Can you ask questions... listen... think about you are hearing? It’s amazing how much smarter you can get by soaking up the experience of others. – Here is what the Bible says:

- Proverbs 12:1 – Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but he who hates correction is stupid. (NIV)
- Proverbs 15:14 – The discerning heart seeks knowledge, but the mouth of a fool feeds on folly. (NIV)

So, let’s be wise and learn from each other. You fill in my knowledge gaps, and I will offer something for yours. Then we’ll BOTH be smarter! (theoretically)

Yours in Him,

Lee
